ANOTHER CHALLENGE!
Brand new to New Hope? “Commit to 6” Sundays in a row. This is the best way to learn about the ministries here! Please let us know if you have any questions at all! See the lobby after service to learn more about New Hope.

Dear New Hope,

In the book “The Art of Neighboring,” the authors differentiate between an ulterior motive and the ultimate motive of loving our neighbor. An ulterior motive, is that we love our neighbors with the only purpose of witnessing. In contrast, Jesus calls us to love our neighbors, even if they never trust Jesus as Lord. Yes, our ultimate motive is to represent Christ and share our faith, but “we don’t just love them to convert them. We love them because we are converted.” As we live out the Great Command, keep in mind that the primary reason God has you in your neighborhood is to live out the royal law: to love your neighbor.

You are loved,
Craig Trierweiler
