1 Peter 1:7-12

One of mankind's least desirable traits is the tendency to take things for granted – (an entitlement mindset). For many Christians, the wonder of salvation (dead in sin to alive in Christ) has become almost an after-thought to their Christian experience. Their pursuit is for a better life now which can diminish the joy of their salvation.

Talk it Over

- How do you keep your focus on being born again, the salvation of your soul as the main thing? Jesus said “what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul?”
- Have you ever given someone a gift that they didn't value or appreciate? How did that make you feel? How do you think God feels about our attitudes and actions?
- What steps do you take to maintain an attitude of gratitude daily?
- All the old testament prophets promised the coming of Jesus. The prophets searched intently for His coming, 1 Peter 1:10-12. Are we supposed to be searching intently for His second coming – why or why not? Use more than one scripture to prove your point.
- What are the most important things in your life?
- Do your words & actions and time & money management prove what you said above is really the most important thing?
